Take a look inside the Reading Journey!

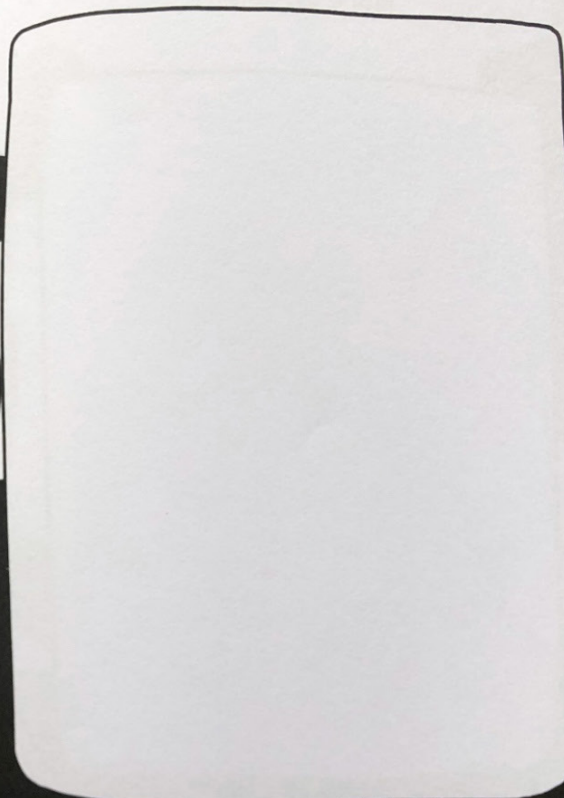

A story! Poems!
Engaging activities!
Writing prompts!

We found a net in the Forest of Feelings that you can use to catch moments that made your heart feel warm, safe and good.

Draw or write about those moments!

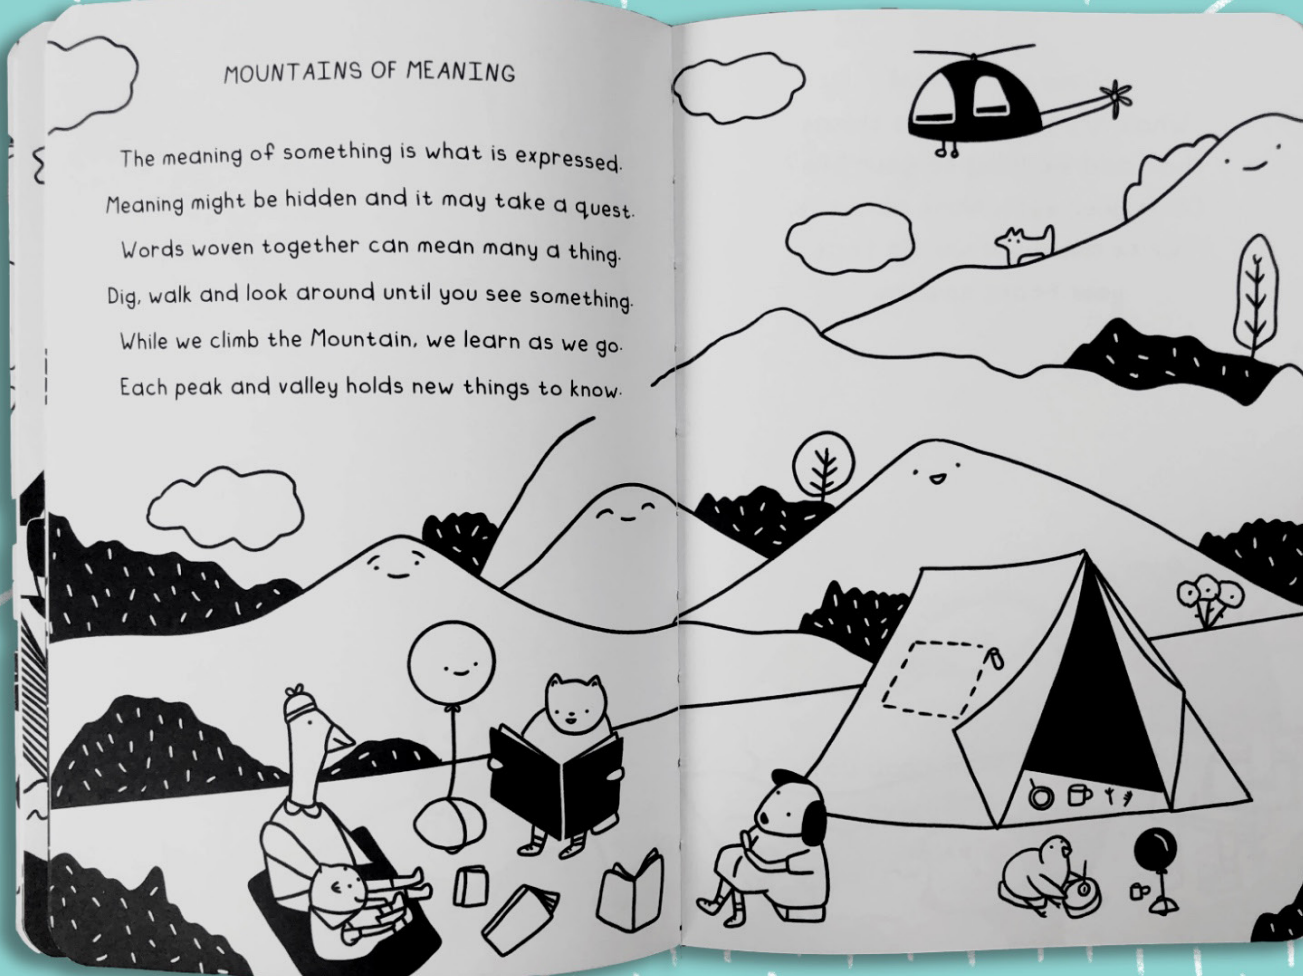

In the Gorge of Gorgeous words,
we use little big jars to store
words that we really like.
These jars are for you!

In this jar you can store
new words that you
have discovered.

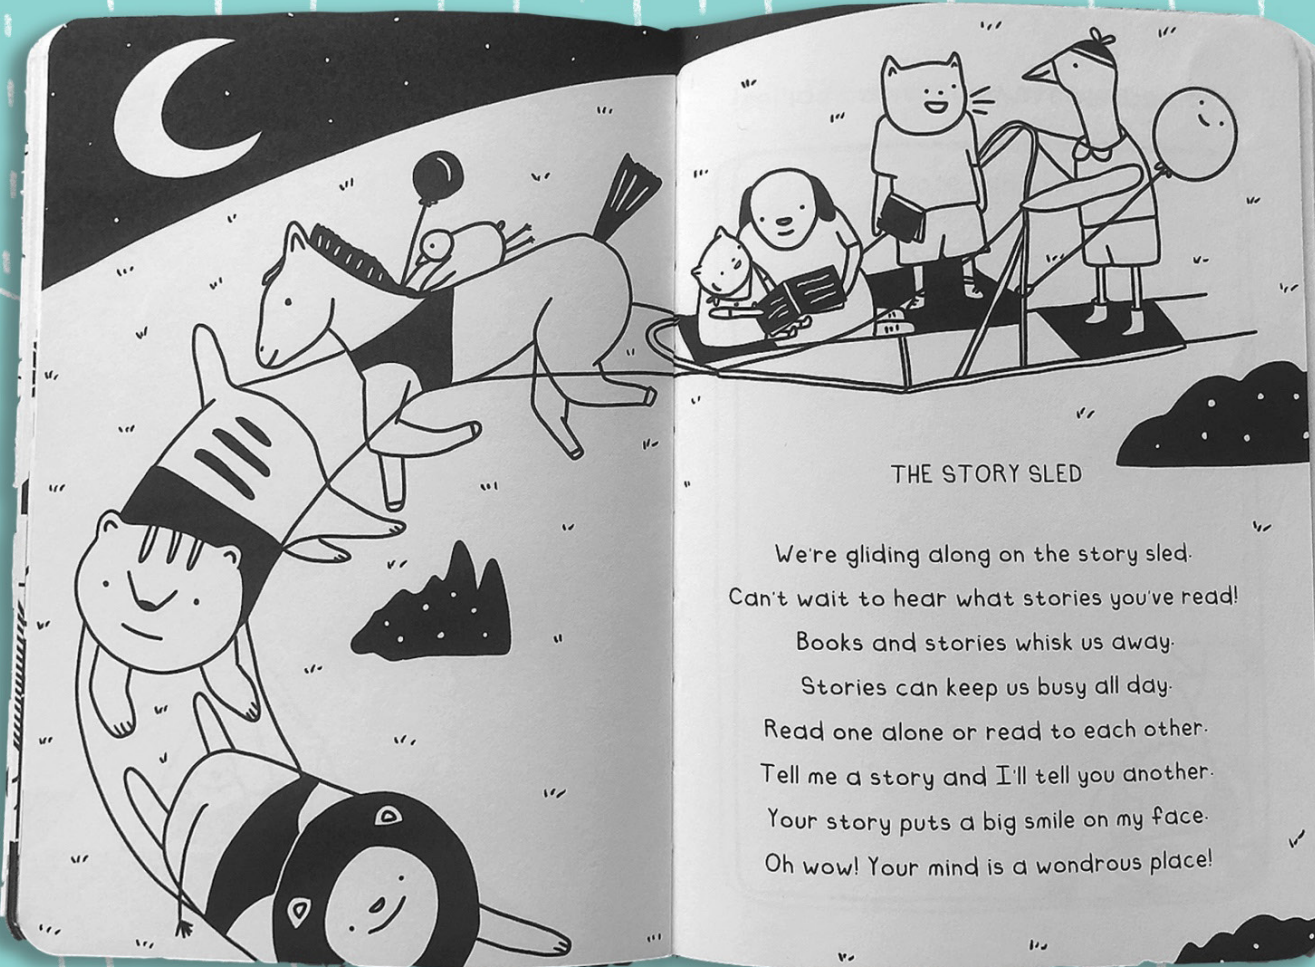

MOUNTAINS OF MEANING

The meaning of something is what is expressed.
Meaning might be hidden and it may take a quest.
Words woven together can mean many a thing.
Dig, walk and look around until you see something.
While we climb the Mountain, we learn as we go.
Each peak and valley holds new things to know.

THE STORY SLED

We're gliding along on the story sled.
Can't wait to hear what stories you've read!
Books and stories whisk us away.
Stories can keep us busy all day.
Read one alone or read to each other.
Tell me a story and I'll tell you another.
Your story puts a big smile on my face.
Oh wow! Your mind is a wondrous place!

DIE VERSIE VLIEGTUIG

Daar's boeke vol gedigte, daar's boeke vol van rym:
pruim en slym, en ligte luim en ook die see se skuim.
Gedigte is verskriklik diep, so diep dat jy moet dink.
Rympies is veel lekkerder, dis daar om te rinkink.
Party kan glad nie rym nie, en dit is ook oorbodig en rympies laat jou sing en dans, want dié is somtyds nodig.
Gedigte het gevoelens en rympies het 'n lied
en dit is vol van dinkgoed wat woorde vir jou bied.

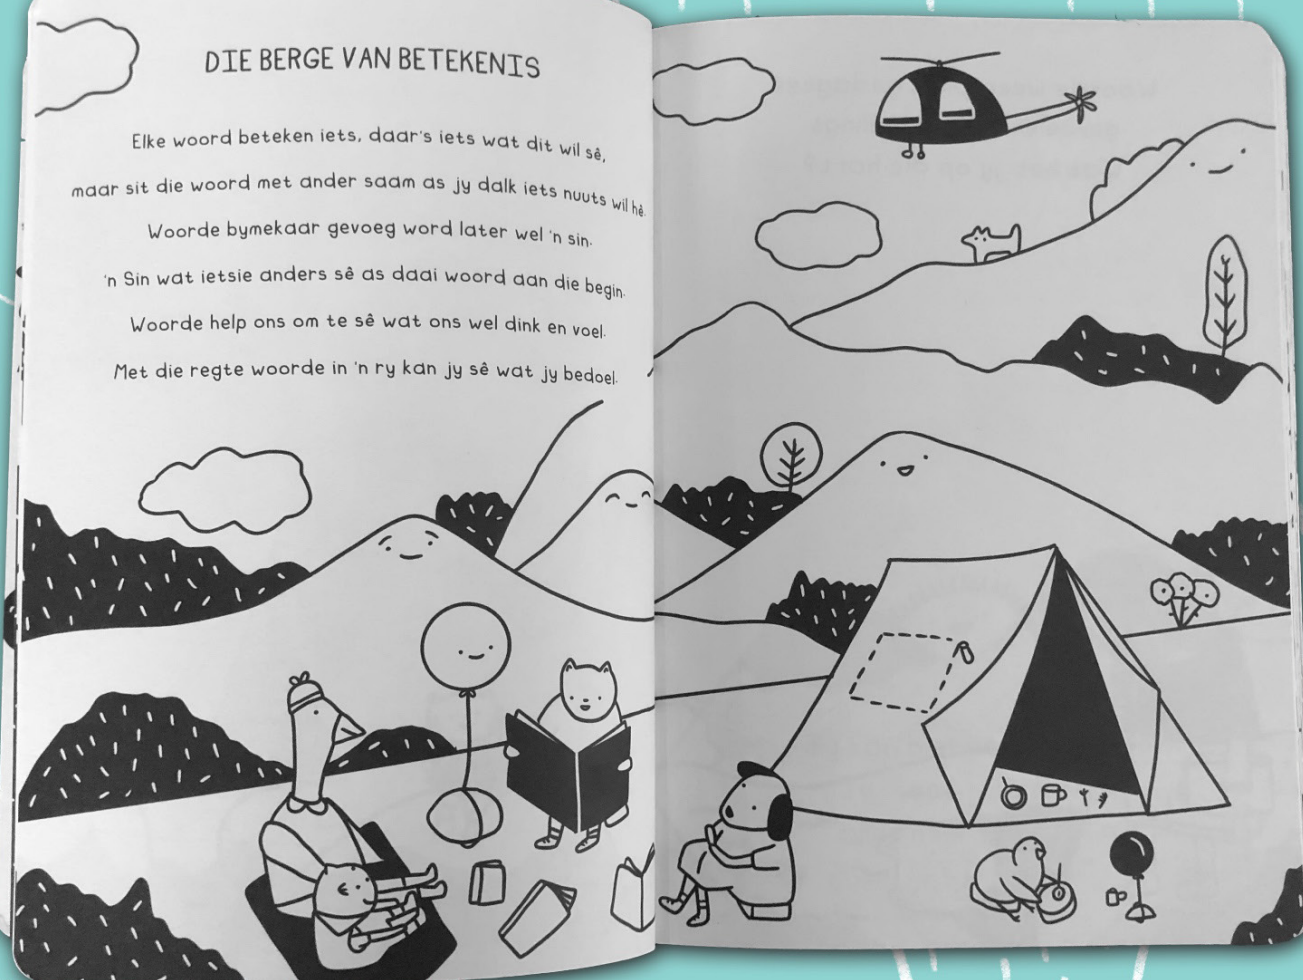

Verbeel jou jy skryf jou eie boek!
Waaroor sal jy skryf?
Hoe sal die voorblad lyk?

DIE BERGE VAN BETEKENIS

Elke woord beteken iets, daar's iets wat dit wil sê, maar sit die woord met ander saam as jy dalk iets nuuts wil hê.
Woorde bymekaar gevoeg word later wel 'n sin.
'n Sin wat ietsie anders sê as daai woord aan die begin.
Woorde help ons om te sê wat ons wel dink en voel.
Met die regte woorde in 'n ry kan jy sê wat jy bedoel.

Vang jou dagdrome vas,
voor dit verdwyn soos 'n wolkie
voor die woestynson.
